8 Elm St., Albany, NY 12202

The Free School in Albany is the longest running inner-city independent alternative school in the United States. We offer a unique alternative to traditional models of education by giving children complete freedom over their learning. Students at the school flourish in a nurturing environment that allows them the freedom to chart their own course of learning while fostering their emotional growth. Volunteers can take part in a wide variety of mentoring activities with students in pre-k – 8 grade. Morning and afternoon hours are available.

The Albany Police Athletic League (PAL), Inc. builds partnerships among youth, police and the community through collaborative programs designed to encourage and develop good citizenship and improve the quality of life in Albany, New York. Albany PAL is seeking help from students with our afterschool and athletic enrichment programming. We are looking for motivated students who are positive, energetic and compassionate; have the ability to work with diverse populations, are flexible and adapt to priority changes; are reliable and committed; pay attention to detail; enjoy learning new things; strive to produce high quality work; conduct themselves in a professional manner and are very responsible and organized.

Majors/backgrounds which would best fit our volunteers include: Education/Childhood Education; Behavioral & Social Science, Social Work, Healthcare, Public Health, Business Administration & Management, Public Policy, and, Communications but we are open to others who may be interested in volunteering at a non-profit organization. Afterschool Program Structure 10 months, September through June, vacations coincide with Albany City School Calendar. Athletic programming runs throughout the year, for more information contact the PAL Center located at 844 Madison Avenue, Albany NY 12208 or call 518-435-0392.

Berkshire Bird Sanctuary and Botanical Gardens

Website: <https://birdparadise.org>

Contact: Peter Dubacher at (518) 279 – 3801
43 Red Pond Road, Petersburg, NY 12138

The Berkshire Bird Sanctuary and Botanical Gardens was founded by Peter Dubacher in 1972 with the ideal of creating a place where disabled and unwanted birds can reside with dignity and avoid euthanasia. Here reside birds of all genus and specie types, including endangered and nonindigenous species like American Bald Eagles, Victoria Crowned Pigeons, Nicobar Pigeons, Sacred African Ibis, and over 300 parrots of various types. The Berkshire Bird Paradise has participated in Eagle Propagation Programs with the DEC as well as numerous community education programs with various local schools and organizations such as Vanderheyden and The Boy Scouts of America. What the Berkshire Bird Paradise offers, is a chance to unite therapeutic animal companionship with volunteer based work to promote ethics based upon charitable empathy and the value of honest labor.

There are several projects going on at the sanctuary at the moment which will give students an opportunity to learn more about birds and their upkeep, construction planning and execution, engineering, and therapeutic compassionate care. Currently, there is a memorial nearing completion and also a new parrot and raptor house which will conclude with the movement of many birds, cages, plants, and supplies.

Students will get the chance to visit with and work beside various types of birds, learning how to maintain their habitats, keep their enclosures clean, and organize for their care through the winter and beyond. Duties may include shoveling, raking, transporting of waste material, feeding, watering, movement of potted plants, cleaning with chemicals (nothing too harsh), disassembling and reassembling cages, and moving materials to and from various locations in the sanctuary.

Capital Roots

Website: www.capitalroots.org

Please contact Marissa Peck, the food assessment coordinator, at 518-274-8685 or foodassessment@capitalroots.org
594 River Street, Troy, NY 12180

Capital Roots is a 501c3 non-profit food hub and fresh food access organization that serves the 4-counties of the Capital District with community gardens, mobile markets and institutional sales of local produce. Community education programs compliment our services.

Capital Roots is currently looking for students to help them conduct research for the Greater Capital Region Food System Assessment and support data analysis. Data collection work includes surveying retail stores across the 4-counties and can happen anytime the stores are open. Data analysis can happen at our office during the regular workday (9-5, M-F), or offsite, depending on the project and the student.

Catskill Animal Sanctuary

Website: <https://casanctuary.org>

Please contact Danielle, the volunteer coordinator at volunteer@casanctuary.org.

Emailing is preferred.

316 Old Stage Road, Saugerties, New York 12477

Nonhuman animals have a right to live their lives free of suffering and exploitation by humans. Catskill Animal Sanctuary exists to provide them with love and safety until they do.

The Sanctuary is a 148-acre refuge in New York's Hudson Valley for eleven species of farmed animals rescued from cruelty, neglect, and abandonment. Thanks to the generosity of people like you, over 4,000 animals have been rescued since 2001. Between 250 and 350 residents call the Sanctuary home at any given time.

We believe that looking an animal in the eye and seeing someone — not something — looking back is one of the most profound shifts human beings can make in their understanding of the world and their place in it. And so we welcome visitors through tours, overnight stays, and events.

As the very best way to end animal suffering, improve our health, and heal our ailing planet, Catskill Animal Sanctuary advocates veganism and provides support and encouragement through a culinary program.

Catskill Animal Sanctuary rescues farmed animals, ignites social change to end their exploitation, and champions vegan living.

Catskill Animal Sanctuary operates with a small, full-time staff so we rely on caring and dedicated volunteers for much of what we do. If you love animals and want to be part of creating a more compassionate world for all beings then volunteer at the Sanctuary! Volunteers help with animal care, business administration, Compassionate Cuisine, Camp Kindness, weekend tours, outreach, events, and projects.

- WIC Vendor Management Agency: CEO's WIC Vendor Management Agency (VMA) oversees stores that accept WIC vouchers.

English Conversation Partners Program (on campus)

Contact Catherine Willis, Assistant Director of the Center for Service Learning and Civic Engagement, c.willis@hvcc.edu

Description: Students work with other Hudson Valley students who are just learning English and about American culture. Students will meet regularly with these students helping them to understand American society as well as with language skills.

Details: Upon your completion of this form, if the ESL service learning opportunity seems like a good match for you, we will try to match you up with a small group of students. You will be given a time slot of approximately 60 minutes per week to meet your ESL "conversation partners." You can meet in the library or cafe.

Every week, you will meet with these students, talk about anything you or they wish to talk about, and answer questions about the English language or American culture as needed. It would be a good idea to prepare for each meeting with some ideas for topics, games, readings, questions for your students (there is a lot you can learn from them as well!), etc. The ESL students will also be encouraged to come prepared with questions and topics for discussion.

You can expect to do a maximum of 10-15 hours of service learning a semester with this opportunity. Once you complete the online application form, please download and complete this form. It will help me pair you with conversation partners based on your schedule.

The middle school (grades 6 – 8) Extended Day program is a proactive after school program designed to increase student academic success. Students in the program have demonstrated academic difficulty in one or more core areas: math, English, social studies, and science. The program runs on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays from 2:30 – 3:30 p.m. Each of the program's six sections is staffed by a certified middle school teacher. Opportunities include one on one and small group instruction, remediation, re-teaching and student planning/organizing.

Joseph's House & Shelter, Inc.

Website: <http://www.josephshousetroy.org/>

Contact Janet Douglass – Volunteer Coordinator, 518-272-2544 ext. 34 or by email at jdouglass@josephshousetroy.org and I be can reached for further information and to arrange a preliminary interview.

74 Ferry Street, Troy 12180.

While working at Joseph's House students participating in the Service Learning Program can be engaged in a variety of tasks. These depend on particular needs of the Shelter at any specific time and the time of day the student can attend. In Troy, we have 3 buildings plus a seasonal overnight overflow shelter and in Albany an outreach van and residence: all of these have some opportunities for volunteering. In November there are off-site volunteer tasks associated with the Troy Turkey Trot. Shelter tasks may include clerical work, meal preparation, light maintenance tasks, sorting and storing donations, and laundry tasks. Integrated into all of these tasks is the opportunity to meet and socialize with guests staying at the Shelter. This is the most important aspect of the experience, since it provides our guests with the opportunity to meet and interact with members of the community, giving evidence that homeless persons are not forgotten or discounted by the broader community but cared for and about. Conversely it supplies the volunteer the opportunity to see first-hand the effects of poverty, homelessness and mental illness on the lives of individuals and the community at large. Available hours can be as early as 8AM for kitchen helpers (weekdays only), the van runs from 2-10PM every day of the year but shifts are 4 hours long, and the overnight 9PM - 7AM runs mid-November to mid-April. General tasks around our buildings usually fall within the 9AM to 8PM time-frame, weekdays.

What best meets your schedule?

Tutor: Can you spare 2 hours a week? Literacy Volunteers provides FREE instruction to adults wanting to improve their functional reading, writing, math and/or English speaking skills. Spend two hours/week to meet with a Learner. Schedule tutoring sessions at your convenience. LVORC provides: training, tutoring materials and support. Everybody WINS! Reading Mentor: Read with a matched reading partner in K-6th grade at an area school during their lunch period each week. Help children develop an interest in books and reading---learn about different kinds of books. One hour of training and an ability to relate to children is needed. Telephone Conversation Partner: Call an adult who is learning to speak English and help them practice speaking English and learn new vocabulary. You talk together for 20-40 minutes just once a week at your convenience. One hour training is required and scripts are provided to get you started. Special events volunteers: Help with Literacy Run 2019 or Scrabble Fundraiser or other happenings. Help with mailings is needed periodically.

Learning Assistance Center (on campus)

Contact Aaron Nooney at (518) 629-7569 (MRV 001) or a.nooney@hvcc.edu

Students will be peer tutors. This program offers a volunteer opportunity for students who would like to help fellow students with learning material for course work. Volunteers will work with Hudson Valley students individually or in various subject areas. The intent is to share learning strategies and content with students seeking to improve their learning in college courses. This will be jointly supervised with a content classroom instructor of the student volunteer. Available hours of service will be when the LAC/CLC/Writing Center/Biology Study Center are open.

Little Brook Farm

Contact Lynn Cross at (518) 821-5506 or Lynnlittlebrookfarm@yahoo.com

548 Co Rte 13, Old Chatham, NY 12136

Little Brook Farm, established in 1977, is one of the oldest and largest rescues in the northeast. Little Brook Farm rescues and provides sanctuary to hundreds of animals including horses, cats, dogs, sheep, pigs and roosters. Little Brook provides horse rescue in cruelty cases, equine therapy, humane education and B.I.T.S. Training*.

B.I.T.S. (Balanced Innovative Teaching Strategies)

BITS, Inc., started in 1986, has been recognized by the government and private entities as an outstanding program serving students from pre-school through college with stunning results. Students have a customized plan with activities and goals consistent with their ability. In addition to working with students who are mentally and physically challenged, the program has also been incorporated into many school curricula. "It didn't take us long to realize that learning about horses and how to care for them is an excellent vehicle to teach math, history and writing. The children are excited to participate, and even those who are chronically absent from school never miss a day," observes Ms. Cross, who was trained as a teacher and spent many years in the classroom. To date, BITS has worked with over 80 schools, agencies and organizations, providing services to over 2000 students annually.

Every year, for more than 20 years, hundreds of first and second-graders from inner-city school districts take their first field trips to Little Brook Farm. Many of these children have never been outside of the city, and the experience is valuable to them in so many ways. For these children, the Field Trip is incorporated into their curriculum to fulfill the Humane Education requirements of New York State. Many of the students, as teens and young adults, can recount all the activities they participated in on their field trip to the farm when they recognize Lynn Cross outside of the farm, or when they come to visit.

Mohawk Hudson Humane Society (MHHS)

3 Oakland Ave., Menands, NY 12204

"To enrich the lives of animals and the people who love them" - the mission statement of the Mohawk Hudson Humane Society.

MHHS is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization that has been providing shelter for lost, abused, and unwanted animals since 1887. The Society is the oldest and largest animal protection organization in New York State Capital Region receiving an average of 6,000 animals per year. We foster a kind and gentle environment for animals and people. In 2017 MHHS found homes for 3,610 animals, reunited 394 lost animals with their owners and our volunteers gave over 32,000 hours to support our organization!

There is a wide range of opportunities for volunteers at MHHS. Our most popular community service opportunity is our Empties for Animals Program (E4A). In 2017, our team sorted more than 1,000,000 redeemable containers raising more than $96,000 for our animals!

*Students needing to perform at least 20 hours or more of service are eligible to work with our Empties for Animal Team. Other opportunities include, but are not limited to:

- Cat Care Associate - helping with daily care of the cats: cleaning, feeding etc
- Dog Care Associate - walking dogs
- Dog Kennel Cleaning - assist staff cleaning dog kennels in the morning
- Behavior & Enrichment Team - those planning to stay with MHHS as an animal care volunteer after their requirement is fulfilled can be trained to assist the B&E Team with training, taking animals on field trips, dog play groups & more!
- Street Team - participate in community outreach events, canvass the community handing out flyers
- Customer Service Assistant - greet customers, answer & return phone calls
- Grounds Crew - help to keep the property neat & tidy
- Housekeeping - general cleaning
- Laundry & Dishes, Sorting Donations

MHHS is open to the public from 12pm - 6pm 7 days a week.

Service learning opportunities are available 7 days a week:

- Empty for Animals Team - 9:30am - 1pm
- Animal related & cleaning assignments - 8am - 6pm
- Customer Service Assistant - 10am - 6pm
- *Grounds Crew & Street Team volunteering will need to be scheduled

New York State Military Museum

Website: <https://dmna.ny.gov/historic/>

Contact Jim Gandy at jgandy@nysmm.org

61 Lake Ave., Saratoga Springs, NY 12866

Participants in the service learning program can perform all of their work at home transcribing veteran oral histories. How this works: contact me at jgandy@nysmm.org and express an interest in this program. I will email you a set of instructions, a sample of what the finished product should look like and a catalog record of a veteran. I will also send you a link on which you will find a link to the oral history on YouTube. You simply record exactly what is said, and by whom, in the interview into a Microsoft Word document (or similar -- I cannot use PDFs). Once you are done you email the finished Word document to the Museum.

New York State Museum

Website: <http://www.nysm.nysed.gov/>

Contact Pat Whalen at pat.whalen@nysed.gov (note that if you fail to write service learning in subject, it is unlikely that he will receive it), or call: (518) 473-2936.

222 Madison Ave, Albany, NY 12230

The New York State Museum organizes programs for families and children in the Discovery Place and also hosts school-aged children in our after-school program. Hudson Valley Community College students can pick to work in one of these two programs. As a week-end volunteer in the Discovery Place, Hudson Valley students will develop programs and then guide children through the process of completing them. The projects may be based on themes in New York State History but also themes in science, culture, literature, and other topics. The projects are interactive and may include arts and crafts and other hands-on activities. Students are welcome to work in pairs. OR: Hudson Valley students serve as mentors to students in the week-day after-school program and assist students with their homework.

The RED Bookshelf

Website: www.theredbookshelf.org

Contact Mary Beth Fowler, Co-Executive Director at 518-210-0449 or mb@theredbookshelf.org

200 Green St. Albany, NY 12202 (physical location)

22 Valleyview Drive, Albany, NY 12208 (mailing address)

The RED bookshelf is a non-profit community literacy program. Working with community partners, it provides free children's books on bright red bookshelves throughout Albany to ensure that all children have access to the benefits of book ownership, regardless of income level.

Through this approach, The RED Bookshelf provides the opportunity for choice, dignity and autonomy, and inspires children to read.

Our primary work with students is spent mending and cleaning the used books that are donated. This generally occurs in 2 hour sessions, and includes wiping clean, removing stickers, covering identifying marks with stickers, and strengthening spines and corners with various tapes.

When students spend 10 hours training in this process, they are then able to facilitate book cleaning on their own campus.

If a student has advanced skills with Google Sheets, there are additional opportunities.

Note from the Center for Service Learning: if you are interesting in working with the RED Bookshelf and want to host an on-campus event, please reach out to us. We can offer you support.

Rensselaer County Historical Society

Historian/Educator at (518) 272-7232 ext12 or ksheehan@rchsonline.org

57 2nd Street, Troy, NY 12180

The Rensselaer County Historical Society is a museum of Rensselaer County History. The site contains three buildings, the 1827 Federal Style Hart Cluett House, and accompanying carriage house, used for adult and children educational interpretive programs about 19th and 20th century life in Troy NY. The 1836 Carr Building houses a research library containing the largest collection of business, fraternal, genealogical, church and photographic records of Rensselaer County History. This semester we are going to need an intern who can work on Saturdays from Noon to 5 PM. We already have filled our other weekdays with student interns from SUNY Albany and Siena College. If you have a student who can commit to working on Saturdays then please have them contact me in the next week or two.

Schenectady County Historical Society / Mabee Farm Historic Site

Website: www.schenectadyhistorical.org

Contact Mary Zawacki, Executive Director, at 518-374-0263 or director@schenechadyhistorical.org

32 Washington Ave, Schenectady NY 12305

The Schenectady County Historical Society brings to life the region's dynamic history through interactive exhibits, talks, workshops, concerts, programs and community events for all audiences at the Mabee Farm Historic Site, the Grems-Doolittle Library, the Schenectady History Museum, and the historic Brouwer House.

Mission

The Schenectady County Historical Society shares stories, inspires dialogue, and encourages understanding of the history, people, and cultures of Schenectady County.

Vision

The Schenectady County Historical Society strengthens our community as an increasingly vital destination and resource for exploring history.

Minimum required time contribution is 20 hours, with at least 4 hours each day the student is on site. Unless otherwise noted, these opportunities are available year-round. You could work on one of the following projects:

Research/Writing: The student would research and write 1,500 word articles on a variety of historical subjects for our newsletter. Research would take place at the SCHS and include looking through primary and secondary sources, and finding images to accompany the articles. The student must be a good writer. M-F, 9am-5pm.

Education: The student would assist with school groups at the Mabee Farm Historic Site for four or five mornings in the spring. The student would lead groups of school children through an activity, such as butter-making. M-F, 9am-1pm.

Digitization: The student would work at the SCHS Library and assist with digitizing images and uploading them to the relevant website(s). M-F 9am-5pm

Gardening/Facilities: The student would work at the Mabee Farm and assist with outdoor tasks including gardening (planting, weeding, harvesting), or organizing the items in the outdoor sheds. M-F, 9am-3pm

Special Events: Summer/Fall only. The student would assist with major special events, including set-up, parking, and cleanup. Specific days only (July 3, July 13, August 24, October 5, October 13).

Painting: There are several painting projects available to students in our Stockade locations. M-F, 9am-5pm.

Our school is one mile from Hudson Valley Community College in a relaxed, secure setting, perfect for fostering childhood development. Our pre-k through grade six program offers a complete NYS Common Core Curriculum with special area subjects in technology, Spanish, art, physical education and music as well as an interactive after school program from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. each day.

We welcome students from Hudson Valley who would like to work with students in the after school program as a mentor or tutor in blocks of time ranging from one to two hours. We also welcome students who may be interested in technology education as a career. Students may work in blocks of one to three hours alongside our technology instructor.

Help refugees from all over the world rebuild their lives in the Capital Region! Volunteers are needed to help clients and staff at the USCRI office, minimum of 4 hours per week for 10 weeks. Help is also needed to prepare apartments for new arrivals, moving in furniture and household goods. Both roles are during business hours. If you are interested, please email us to learn how to get started. Students wishing to complete just the 20 hour requirement are invited to help with housing, but there are additional opportunities for students willing to commit to 4 or more hours per week for 1 or more semesters.

Students will work closely with the director to do original research. They will read letters and manuscripts from the colonial period and do content analysis of these materials. Topic you may do research on include: enslaved persons in the 1600's 1700's and 1800's; the role of women in Dutch settlement; the fur trade; Native Americans in the colonial period; and more! Minimum time commitment is 20 hours. The research is completed at the State Archives during regular business hours.

Viking Child Care Center (on campus)

Website: <https://www.hvcc.edu/daycare/index.html>

Contact Lisa Stanco, Assistant Director at l.stanco@hvcc.edu

The Viking Child Care Center is a NAEYC (National Association for the Education of Young Children) Accredited Center. The Center is licensed by the NYS Office of Children and Family Services. The center works with children ages 6 weeks through 5 years old. There are 10 classrooms – 3 infant, 4 toddler, 3 preschool. There are opportunities to work with children individually or in small groups under the direction of the Viking Child Care Center staff. Available hours for service learning are 7:30 to 11:30 a.m. and 3:00 to 5:30 p.m. Please sign up early in your semester as spots fill quickly.

Voter Registration (on Campus)

Contact Catherine Willis, Assistant Director of the Center for Service Learning and Civic Engagement, c.willis@hvcc.edu

Less than 60% of Americans who are of voting age voted in the last presidential election. This means that almost half of our population is not having a say in the policies that shape their lives. Voting is disproportionately lower among young Americans. You can help reverse this trend by helping students register to vote on campus.

Working in conjunction with the Center for Service Learning and Civic Engagement, Student Activities and the Center for Access and Assistive Technologies, you will select events at which you set up a table to provide registration information and help students register to vote.

Yates Farm (Town of Glenville)

Website: townofglenville.org

Contact Chris Koetzle, Supervisor of the Town of Glenville at 518-688-1201 or ckoetzle@townofglenville.org

18 Glenridge Rd, Glenville, NY 12302

Yates Mansion (farm) is located in Glenville. It is currently in disrepair and undergoing renovations. To articulate the historic significance of this property, we would like to develop a better understanding of who lived there from 1734 to 1855 and learn what the property was used for in that time.

Students would work out of the Glenville Municipality offices. They would transcribe primary documents and piece together a chain of ownership by reading through titles, deeds as well as wills. The student could also research primary sources to determine what was grown on the farm. The student will receive support and research guidance on site.

World Class Kids

Website: <http://worldclasskidspreschool.com/>

Contact Kimberly Wright at (518) 812-0260 or worldclasskids@verizon.net

12 Farr Lane, Queensbury, NY 12804

World Class Kids is a licensed day care center through New York State Office of Children and Family Services. We have 6 different classrooms ranging from Infants to School-agers. We provide an atmosphere that encourages social, emotional, physical, and intellectual growth and development of the child as a whole. Our curriculum includes sharing and conversation time, stories, songs; creative art activities and crafts, games and large muscle activities; science and nature activities; exposure to shapes, colors, numbers and letters; and celebration of birthdays and holidays. Our programs are flexible and take into consideration that each child is unique in their temperament, learning style, interests and developmental capabilities.

Prospective volunteers are invited to come and observe any days, Monday through Friday from 8-12pm.
