Bloodborne Pathogen Training Test

Examples of Bloodborne pathogens include; HBV and HIV as well as HCV.
True False

Activities that lead to possible exposure to Bloodborne pathogens include wound care.  True False

Low risk activities include giving injections
True False

Engineering and Work Practice Controls include hand washing.
True False

Latex gloves may be washed and used again.
True False

There are no side effects to Hepatitis B vaccination.
True False

The CDC Defines one type of exposure as a percutaneous injury.
True False

Nasal secretions and sputum are not considered potentially infectious unless they contain blood.
True False

High risk exposure should be treated within 4 hours.
True False

A copy of OSHA Bloodborne regulations should accompany the patient to Northeast Health.
True False